The Cauldron, '48

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS

Take a look at the shoe strings in your saddles. You have seen how shoes are held together by the laces, also, how school spirit is entwined about the students until they are firmly bound together in a friendship shown by the various clubs and activities.

A pair of saddles has twenty eyes, a student has only two. With these eyes, a student receives his greatest means of learning. With them he may read great books, study famous paintings, and view Mother Nature.

The tongue in a shoe would be missed if not included. Humans express their ideas and, at the same time, receive benefit from other people's thoughts. By this only means of conversing, great ideas are born.

Every shoe must have a "soul." It is with this sole as a foundation that a shoe is built. School spirit is the underlying principle upon which a school is built. A good sole makes a good shoe; good school spirit makes a good high school.

The arch in a shoe gives comfort and ease to the wearer. A good basic education acquired in high school makes for an easier and happier life. For many of us, high school is the bridge between adolescence and adulthood.

A tiny shoe nail is only one thing that makes a well-built shoe. It may be small, but it plays an important part in shoe construction. Likewise, there are things that make up the well-rounded student.

The Day Begins . . .

Deans' Daily Duties

To the office of the deans are brought the many problems of the students of Frankfort High School. Working with the other officials, they have been a guiding factor in the promotion of scholastic, moral, and social welfare among the students. By personal conferences with students and correspondence with parents, much has been done to bring about a friendly and helpful relationship among the student, faculty, and parent.

*Homeroom, attendance, announcements,
last minute instructions, and off we go!*

Library . . . volumes of knowledge

Theorem . . . Hypothesis . . . Results!

¿Habla Usted Espanol?

Soup's on. Come'n get it!

Back-beat boogie

Drowns out ping-pong patter

No! No! Anything but that!*

Push this--pull that... total!

Watch the poor cat's throat!

Our Principal

Of course the students know Mr. Woodruff—his friendly smile and cheery “hello” for everyone—but we would like to introduce him to all those outside of school. Mr. Woodruff does much to solve the problems concerning the faculty, but he is never too busy to give aid to all students in curriculum outlines or even outside activities.

He had made quite a few changes around “dear old F. H. S.”—changes for the better, we are inclined to think. With his expert guidance, we have kept our school in pace with the “new look” everyone is talking so much about.

Yes, we seniors are proud to have been associated with him for all too short a time, and we know that the students who will soon be taking our place will feel much the same way.

The Senior Class

"The Best Years of Our Lives." This may recall to your mind a famous movie title, but to us, the seniors of F. H. S., it brings back all the memories of our high school days.

As we entered Frankfort High School five years ago, as timid eighth graders, we had many ambitions and dreams. Some of these have been accomplished; others will come in future years as a result of our education received here.

Under the competent direction of Miss Hilda Kearns, Miss Doris Knox, James McMurtrey, and Raymond Rohrabough, sponsors, and the officers pictured above, we have established an enviable record which we leave behind with pride.

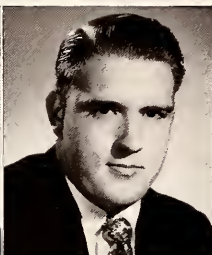

Baccalaureate services for this graduating class were held on Sunday evening, May 23. On Class Day, which was held on Wednesday, May 26, awards and honors were given to those deserving members of our class. At long last, on May 27, we received our diplomas and the knowledge that now we face the world alone.

The Junior Class

The Junior Class, under the leadership of their officers and sponsors, Miss Sanders, Miss Carfield, and Mr. Shockney, had the task of planning the most important social event of the year, the annual Junior-Senior Prom. The dance was held May 14, in Howard Hall. The theme, the Marda Gras, was carried out in typical New Orleans' style.

Members of the class proved themselves exceptional in the field of athletics and also in public speaking and dramatic activities.

Sunshine Society

This society, under the sponsorship of Miss Foster and Miss LeHew, is one of the most outstanding girls' service clubs in F. H. S. The club, as in past years, made their money by selling candy at basketball games.

Under the guidance of Mr. Gregg and the following officers: president, Jack Ewing; vice-president, Tom Hall; treasurer, Dalton Mangis; sergeant-at-arms, Everet Smith; treasurer, David Michael; chaplain, Kenneth Ayers, the club accomplished many worthwhile things.

The F. H. S. Band

Under the baton of Mr. William D. Kleyla, the Frankfort High School Band has gained state-wide recognition in only one year by giving so many successful performances. At practically all of the home football games the band gave some sort of a show. Frankfort will long remember "BAND SHOW" held at Stott Field, in which the bands of Frankfort, Kokomo, and Crawfordsville participated in concert and marching work. "BAND SHOW" was the original idea of Mr. Kleyla. It was also produced and directed by him.

Entering state auditions has greatly increased the band's popularity and respect all over the state. Twenty-nine students entered the district this year. Of that number everyone placed in first or second positions. Six soloists and four ensembles placed first; eight soloists and two ensembles placed second. Those who placed in first division journeyed to Terre Haute to win first in four solos and two ensembles and second division in three solos and two ensembles.

The band entered the district auditions at Noblesville, coming home with a first division. The organization then went to DePauw University at Greencastle to participate in the state finals. The Frankfort High School Band won a first division in both marching and concert. If there were still a national audition, the Frankfort High School Band would be eligible to enter. However, the national was disbanded at the beginning of the war.

On May 12, the band went to Indianapolis to take part in the Shriner parade. The school may well be proud of their outstanding band!

Under the chairmanship of Elena Terpinas, the Pep Committee has added much to the school spirit. Athletics . . .

Coaches

Row 1: Mr. Dick, Mr. Rohrabough.

Row 2: Mr. Baldwin, Mr. Ford, Mr. Cummins.

The five men pictured above are largely responsible for the showing made by our school in the field of athletics during this year.

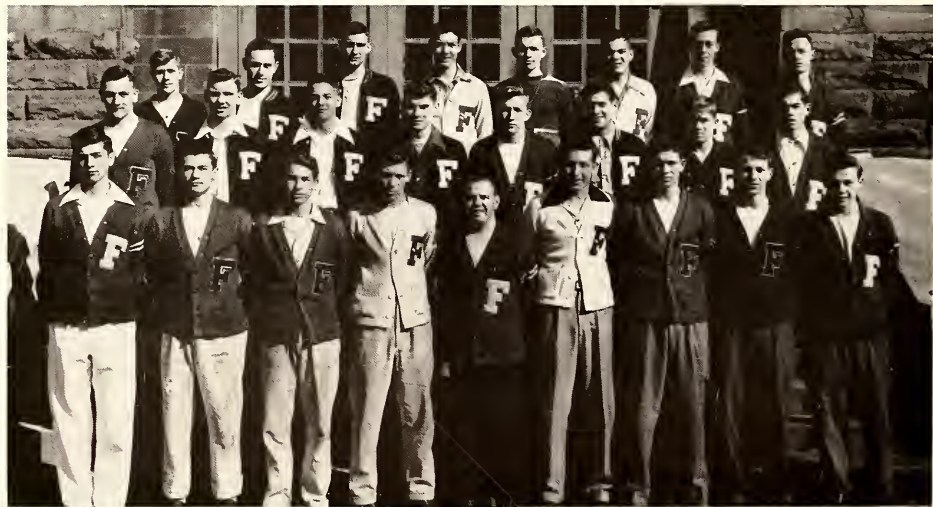

Although this was the first year of coaching at FHS for Walter Ford and Wilbur Cummins, these men have earned the respect of both the school and the community. A coach's life is not an easy one by any means, and these men are to be congratulated on their fine results with the various FHS teams this year.

"F" Club

Though the road is not smooth, every boy has a burning desire to be an "F" man. To win an "F" an athlete must earn a major award in one of the major sports.

One of the most outstanding programs of the year, "The Big Broadcast," is sponsored by the "F" Club; and the members also hold an annual picnic in the spring.

Since the school has expanded its field of athletics by including baseball as a major sport, the membership is much larger than in previous years.

Varsity Football Squad

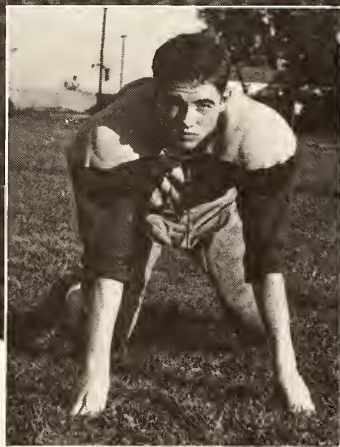

Do you remember . . . the opener with the band playing and an easy 34-12 win over Sheridan . . . the break-away pass play from Tom Hall to Butch, and Tom's kick for extra point for a 14-13 win over Richmond in the last twenty seconds . . . the general team let-down and the broiling King Sol that handed the Hawks a 26-0 defeat at Howe . . . the determined team that fought Logan's goal line for a 14-0 win, Don Van Tyle's 90-yard touchdown sprint of a pass interception . . . the return of the kick-off for a touchdown at Kirklin and the 41-0 victory . . . the magnificent line play against Jeff, the crowd that was the largest ever to see a football game in Frankfort, the heartbreaking final 12-7 score after the Hawks had completely outplayed Jeff . . . the downpour of rain and the mud in the 7-2 win against Kakomo that cinched third place in the NCC . . . West Side's fine blockers and Sonny Oyler's two touchdown runs that handed the team a 19-3 defeat . . . that romping 40-0 finale with Rensselaer in which the Hawks scored at will.

Basketball

Coming to F. H. S. from Gas City, Coach Wilbur Cummins employed the zone defense to an advantage in his first year at the reins of the Hot Dogs. The Dogs, largely composed of veterans from last year, won twelve and lost ten in spite of a rugged schedule which included twelve conference teams. The team won five and lost seven in N. C. C. play.

Richard Ricker, Robert Irick, Denny Ayers, and Ed Baer landed all conference berths at the season's end.

The schedule this year was highlighted by several overtime games. In the opener, F. H. S. was forced to win in an overtime because of a last quarter surge by the Athenians. Three of these four games in the holiday tourney were overtime events, and Anderson conquered the Dogs in a sudden death double overtime.

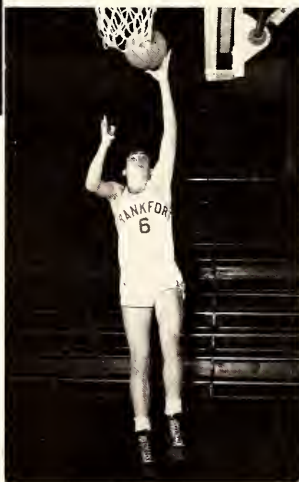

The Hot Dogs began to gain the attention of basketball fans over the state when they knocked off three highly rated N. C. C. teams and Tipton to take on a sharp edge just before tourney time. Michiganantown fell in a rough and tumble game, but the old Rossville jinz prevailed as Rossville from mid-court in an overtime game.

Grover Smith was a guard with a lot of fight on backboards. "Smitty" is also a senior and will be missed next year.

Robert Irick played forward. "Bob" was the team's high point player for this season. He placed high in N. C. C. scoring as he bowed out of his high school basketball career. •

Dick Ricker, big junior center, tried hard to win every game. "Butch" will be fighting hard for a starting berth next season.

Gerald McIntosh was a forward. "Mac" showed plenty of drive when he was called upon. This was his last year.

Jack Leininger, guard this year, was one of the hardest workers on the team. He was a senior and will be missed next year.

Kenneth Ayers, "Squirt" to the Frankfort basketball fans, played guard and was a senior. He was the best of the team on handling the ball.

Eddie Boer, forward, of whom much is expected next year, was a junior and one of the best shots on the team.

Donald Van Tyle played guard and his speediness was a headache to the opposition. He will be missed next year. "Blondie" played his best game against Ross-ville.

"B" Team Basketball

Second Row: Don Johnson, Fred Agnew, Eugene Winger, Edward Robbins.

"B" Team

Most positions on this year's B-team were held by sophomores. Lacking height but with plenty of speed, the Hot Pups were able to overcome most of the opposition. This was definitely a well-balanced team with no outstanding individuals. The highlight of the season was when they overcame all opposition to cop the B-team tourney, which was held at Frankfort. The future of Frankfort's Fighting Five looks very bright from here.

Freshman Team

Take notice! The greenclads of F. H. S. were regular gladiators on the floor. They had a very fine season, winning twelve and losing only three. If they continue to improve, the class of 1951 may have a championship team.

Cross Country Team

The scoring of a cross country two-mile meet is the reverse of the scoring for a track meet in that one point is given for first, two for second, etc. To earn a trophy in this sport, thirty-five or less points are necessary. F. H. S. won one and lost one with Jeff, lost to Kokomo, won two against Delphi, placed fourth in the sectional at Terre Haute. Jack Bricker won four dual meets and ran fifth in the sectional. Trophies were awarded to Ed Baer, Jack Bricker, Jack Leininger, Richard and Robert Cole.

Track Team

Coach Dorwin Dick's track team, headed by Richard Ricker's 50.5 in the 440 and 22.7 in the 220, and Jack Bricker's 4:48.5 in the mile gives F. H. S. a good start on a difficult track schedule. The squad started things off right by eeking out a 54 2/3-54 1/3 victory over Logansport. This was followed with an 88-21 rout of West Side and a 68-41 win over Jeff. This is the first time in sixteen years that Frankfort has defeated Jeff in a dual meet. A dual meet with Delphi resulted in victory, also for the first time F. H. S. won the Attica Relays. The Delphi Relays, N. C. C. meet, Frankfort Relays, and Central Indiana remain in the schedule.

Row 1: Sidney Swift, Roy Coy, Dick Sheets, Merrill Fishback, Phil Harker, George Goodnight.

Baseball Team

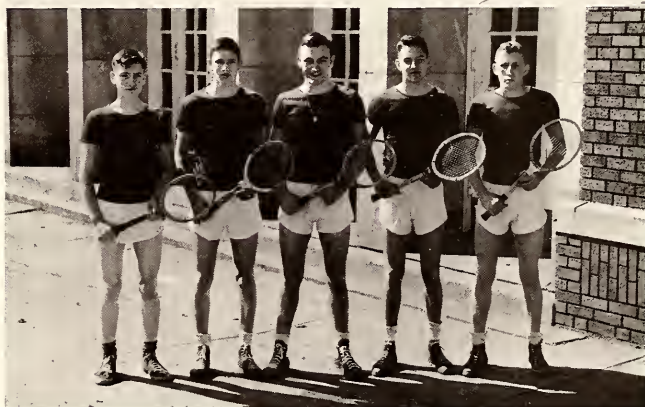

Nine Conference games plus non-Conference games with Lebanon make up the 1948 baseball schedule. Early season training was held in Howard Hall due to inclement weather. In the opening game with Jeff one bad inning was the downfall for F. H. S. Ayre's airtight pitching was a factor in a 2-1 victory over Tech. Despite errors and erratic pitching the conference victory No. 2 was achieved over Logansport 12-11. Marion was next Conference foe and again Blue Sox win 3-1. Highlight was triple play, Behr to Irick to Harker.

Midway in the season finds the Blue Sox in the leading roll for the Conference title.

Golf

In their third year of organization, the golf team participated in three dual meets. These were with Lafayette, Kokomo, and Logansport. The team also entered the Conference and State meets.

Tennis

Ready one! And our Tennis team is on the ball. The tennis team has been organized for only one year. Despite this fact, they have managed to make an excellent showing for our school. The team has played five games against strong opposition and have come out victorious by winning four out of the five games.

Girls' Physical

Girls in the Physical Education program, either two years or four years, remember the closely contested volleyball and basketball games which were held after school. Games for balance and skill were stressed in badminton, tennis, soccer, and softball. The highlights of the Physical Education program was the Physical Education demonstration in Howard Hall displayed to a capacity audience.

Finis . . .

Along with the announcement of their appointments last fall, there came to those stalwart souls, the executive of this book, a beautiful dream that of putting out a volume of the "Cauldron" completely different — a journalistic masterpiece, so to speak. There was nothing new or original with "Cauldron" staffs. They have been having the same hallucinations for thirty-seven years. And then, as the last page of copy was sent to the printers — in feverish haste lest the book come out one week late instead of the customary two months—the staff wistfully has wished, either that they might have one more fling at materializing their dream, or that they had attended the Granii High School in Flag Islands and gone out for the ping pong squad. We are now convinced of the truth of the poignant line from Shakespeare, "There are in these United States three kinds of people: those that are born crazy, those that achieve craziness, and those that edit Cauldrons."
